Family to celebrate Amy's brave battle

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A BRAVE girl's fight against a life-threatening brain tumour is being celebrated.

Amy Coulson was seven when she was diagnosed with a rare form of brain tumour that affects the pituitary gland, after her optician noticed she had a lack of peripheral vision on one side.

After an MRI scan at Addenbrooke's in May 2006, her parents received the devastating news that a tumour had been discovered behind her eye. She went into hospital last July for just over a week to have fluid drained from the cyst part of the tumour.

Shortly afterwards her parents were faced with an agonising decision when it was found the tumour had detached itself from the lining of the brain – doctors said they had little choice but to put Amy through a six-hour operation.

That was followed by a further operation to relieve blood pressure on her brain and a three-week stay at the hospital.

Dad Ian said: "Amy is a very remarkable girl, very brave and has done really well with all her treatment. We are very proud of her, she has been so mature."

Amy, now eight, takes three types of tablets a day and is learning to inject herself with another drug, but this week her family received news that the remaining part of the tumour in her brain had died.

■ REMARKABLE GIRL . . . Amy, far right, will be at Saturday's party along with dad Ian, mum Sarah and her six-year-old sister Beth.

Picture: Richard Patterson 425353.

Ian added: "When she got the news she just clenched her fists and punched the air. She is doing well and her sight has improved considerably."

Now the Steeple Bumpstead girl's grateful family have organised a summer eve's party, to be held at the Red Lion pub on Saturday, starting at 7pm.

Ian said: "We are a very relieved family and wanted to give something back to say thank you. We would not wish this on anyone else, but we would like to help by providing equipment for people who need treatment in the future.

"The treatment Amy received was first class. All the staff were absolutely brilliant, both in C2 and the Paediatric Intensive Care Unit. We cannot thank them enough, they had people teaching the kids and a cook called Mick, who was always cheery, with a smile on his face to cheer them up.

"Family and friends have been awesome, we have had so much support from everyone, including her school, Stanley Drapkin Primary. We want as many people as possible to come along and celebrate with us. We have donations from local businesses and have £600 already. We hope to raise between £2,000 and £2,500."

The event is free, with a barbecue and music, raffle and an auction for some great prizes, including a Virgin balloon flight.

Marathon man set for 175-mile run

■ WARMING UP . . . Runner Dave Greenham with sports massage therapist Rebecca Oakley.

Picture: Richard Patterson 425741.

SUPERFIT grandad Dave Greenham is preparing to run a gruelling 175 miles in just one week to raise money for the Hospice at Home Appeal.

The veteran runner, who has completed 20 marathons since 2000, is now in training for the Marathon of Britain, which will include four ultra marathons across some of the toughest countryside in Britain.

Carrying a heavy backpack throughout the run will be the first challenge of day one, the next will be to climb the Malvern Beacon, which is 425m high - a tough climb for even the fittest athlete.

Day two will take competitors over four of the Cotswold's largest hills, while day three will present them with the challenge of running across the River Avon flood plain and circumnavigating Shakespeare's Stratford-upon-Avon.

The next stage will take runners cross country to Warwick, before a demanding 55 miles on the fifth day. On day six the runners then finally complete the 175 miles at Nottingham Castle.

Dave, who is a roofer, was a keen cross-country runner at school, but only took up the sport again following his divorce in 2000, however he hasn't looked back since.

This will be the second time he has run the Marathon of Britain, and he said: "When I crossed the finish line I said never again, but once I recovered I decided to give it another go.

"I have decided to support the Hospice at Home Service because I know what a wonderful job they do.

"My mum's neighbour, Ruth Redhead had motor neurone disease and required the service of the hospice. She died before Christmas, but so many people need the help of the service I decided to tackle the run again and raise money for them."

The 56 year old runs about 60 miles each week, which includes a long run on Sundays, when he sets off from his house in Brybank Road, Haverhill, at 8am and doesn't return until about 4pm.

Dave regularly visits sports physiotherapist Rebecca Oakley, who helps him keep in tip-top condition, and he says he hopes to escape injury during his week of running.

He said: "Last year I put a lot of plasters around my feet and ankles and managed to stay blister free, so hopefully I'll be lucky again this year."

To sponsor Dave call the fundraising office at Arthur Rank Hospice on (01223) 723 115, or email fundraising.arhc@btinternet.com

Satellite link-up for mobile library users

THE latest technology will be available to villagers using a new mobile library service.

A satellite-equipped vehicle which will enable library users to access the library catalogue and use the internet was launched at Wickhambrook, along with new routes for it to cover in west Suffolk.

Coun Graham Newman, county council portfolio holder for adult and community services, and Coun Jane Midwood, member of the Clare division which includes her home village of Wickhambrook, launched the new vehicle on its revised routes.

The stop at Wickhambrook is a new, longer "community stop" to allow for more activities based on the mobile library. The first stop included storytelling for children and adults by Andy Jennings, tying in with the summer reading challenge, which is available on mobile libraries for the first time in Suffolk.

Coun Newman said: "I am so pleased that we have successfully developed new routes to suit more people.

"The mobile library service can be a vital link for people in more rural areas without easy access to towns, and those who are housebound."

■ EMERGENCY LANDING . . . unfavorable weather conditions forced the glider to land in a field.

Bumpy landing gliding across a stubble field

THIS glider was forced to land in a field near Haverhill on Saturday. Dave Sloan, of Sowley Green, was shocked when the pilot knocked on his door to say he had landed near his house. He said: "He needed to phone up RAF Wittering, where he had set off from, to ask them to bring a trailer to collect him. "He had been losing height because of the lack of thermals and so had to find a good place to land. The harvesters are at work at the moment, and the field was cut a couple of days ago and so it was the perfect place to land." The glider came from the Four Counties Gliding Club, based at RAF Wittering.

New call for action over 'road of death'

CAMPAIGNERS have renewed pleas to improve the A1307 after the "road of death" claimed another life.

Motorcyclist Nicholas Williams died following a collision with a van close to the Hildersham crossroads at around 5pm last Wednesday.

Another crash happened close to the Granta garage at around the same time and a section of the road between Hildersham and Linton was closed for more than two hours.

Diversions were set up through Hildersham and Linton, causing

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

chaos as juggernauts and tankers negotiated narrow country lanes.

Esther Cornell, spokeswoman for the action group Access 1307, which has repeatedly called for safety improvements on the road, said the Braintree man's death underlined the need for something to be done. She said: "We regret another loss of life. Our thoughts are with the family.

"Whatever the circumstances, the fact remains something needs to be done about the road, accidents just seem to happen there more than other roads. We would also ask drivers to take care and be responsible in their driving."

Chris Cullum, a former Haverhill town councillor who uses the road daily, said he believed speed was still the greatest issue, with unmarked police cars recently being used to catch and prosecute drivers.

He said: "I get idiots overtaking me every day on the road. I think a speed limit is a waste of time unless it is enforced.

"I think it needs average speed cameras like those on the A14, perhaps one in Haverhill and another one at Abington. Something needs to be done sooner rather than later."

A Cambridgeshire County Council spokesman said police were investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of Mr Williams.

Results were being awaited on speed limit assessments across the county, including the A1307, which had "top priority".

He added: "We are very concerned about a fatal accident on the A1307. We have spent hundreds of thousands of pounds, and continue to do so, on measures to try to reduce accidents."

Double acts to pay tribute to pop idols

TRIBUTE acts will rock Haverhill Market Square this Saturday.

The Great Big Tribute Night will see Elton John, Abba and Queen impersonators, take to the stage.

The Kings of Queen are widely regarded as one of the UK's top Queen tribute bands, and they will play a live set featuring all the greatest hits from We are the Champions to Radio GaGa, and the unforgettable Bohemian Rhapsody.

David Kinghorn will be backed by a live band as he pays homage to Elton John and sings classics including Crocodile Rock,

Candle in the Wind and Rocket Man.

The Abba Max Girls, meanwhile, will perform Dancing Queen and Supertroupers, plus Thank You for the Music.

There will be more entertainment on Saturday, August 25, with Take This, taking off Take

That, and the Bootleg Blues Brothers performing.

Nick Keeble, arts and leisure manager at Haverhill Town Council, said: "The Saturday evenings on the Market Square have been very popular over a number of years. This year we are promoting two nights with some of the best tribute bands around with music from the 1960s all the way through to today. We want to encourage families to come out and have a fun time together."

The concert on Saturday begins at 8pm and is free to attend.

Walk closes for final facelift

WORK on a £460,000 scheme to improve a run-down part of Haverhill is nearly finished – five months behind schedule.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council has announced that Jubilee Walk will close on Sunday so that the finishing touches can be carried out on a revamp of the shopping area.

Bad weather and the "complexity of keeping the area open for access" have been blamed for the lengthy delays which have disrupted shoppers and traders in the town since January.

The Jubilee Walk scheme is the first part of the Haverhill masterplan which will see £10 million spent on the town centre over the next 10 years.

But traders have been upset by the long delays amid rumours circulating around Haverhill that the Co-Op was planning to sue for loss of trade – which the supermarket subsequently denied.

Representatives from the council will be in Haverhill on Friday and Saturday to hand out information and answer questions from the public.

From Monday, a council worker will also be in the Jubilee Walk area to help with any additional queries.

The one-day closure on Sunday will allow workers to spring clean the area.

A new granite seat is also set to be delivered and installed over the coming weeks and the commemorative sculpture of Owen, the ginger Jubilee Walk cat will then be put in place.

Coun Nigel Atkins, who represents Haverhill on the borough council, said: "Jubilee Walk is an important gateway into Haverhill and these improvements will give it a distinct character and identity which will help mark the town apart from its neighbours.

"We want the work to be of the highest standard and something of which the people of Haverhill can be proud."

A final date for the official opening has still not been set but work is due to finish by the end of the summer.

The Haverhill Masterplan hit another setback last week when Nick Martin, town centre manager, resigned for "personal reasons".

Mr Martin was charged with helping to kick-start the town's economy by helping it spend £10 million needed to make the plan a reality.

Life-saving marathon for charity

A COMMUNITY first responder spent six hours practising his technique on a dummy to raise hundreds of pounds for charity. Rowland Cole spent the day outside Sainsbury's in Haverhill on Saturday to help draw attention to the lifesaving work of the emergency medical charity Magpas. He is a first responder, a non-medical volunteer who has been trained by Magpas so he can attend medical emergencies in the neighbourhood.

The scheme has saved countless lives across the region because the responders often arrive before the ambulance when a 999 call is made. Their speedy response means they are able to use their training and equipment to save lives. They carry an automatic defibrillator which reads the heart and administers shocks in cases of heart attacks. It costs £1,000 a year to run the Haverhill community first responder group. Rowland said: "With just a few days training from the charity, anyone can do this. You don't need to have any previous experience because Magpas takes care of all that. Local people really can make a difference." The charity also operates the emergency medical team – highly trained doctors and paramedics who deliver cutting edge lifesaving treatment at the scenes of road traffic accidents. Rowland raised more than £900 and did around 154 demonstrations of CPR – a grand total of 18,480 chest compressions and 1,232 breaths. Rowland added: "I did 38 demonstrations in the first hour." ## Biker killed in road crash

A MOTORCYCLIST killed in a crash at the weekend was from Haverhill.

Kevin Jones, 30, of Hales Barn Road, Haverhill, died when his Suzuki motorcycle was in collision with a Peugeot car at North Stow, near Elveden, on Sunday.

He was certified dead at the scene of the crash on the B1106 road.

Police investigating the collision have arrested a 46-year-old man from Bury St Edmunds on suspicion of causing death by dangerous driving. He has been released on bail to return to Bury St Edmunds police station on September 27.

Anyone who witnessed the crash is asked to contact Pc Martin England at the Bury St Edmunds road policing unit (01284) 774100.

Expert in the art of war

FORMER Haverhill schoolboy Danny Steed is well on his way to a career as an army officer after completing a Bachelor of Arts degree with honours in war studies at Kings College, London. Danny, 21, whose family live at Moneypiece Close, Haverhill, is a former pupil of Place Farm Primary, Castle Hill Middle and Castle Manor Upper schools in Haverhill. He will now study for a Masters degree at Reading University and hopes to win a place at Sandhurst Military Academy.

Partners play up kids' right to fun

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

MORE fun is being planned for young people across Suffolk following the launch of the Suffolk Play Strategy.

In a groundbreaking partnership, organisations including Suffolk County Council, district and borough councils, the primary care trusts, Suffolk ACRE and Young Suffolk have joined together to form a group known as Partners in Play, Suffolk (PIPS).

The group aims to increase and improve children's access to play equipment across the county. The borough and district councils will be applying in September for BIG Lottery funding for play projects.

Suffolk County Council prepared the Play Matters strategy after consultation with Suffolk Primary Care Trust, St Edmundsbury Borough Council, Forest Heath District Council, other district councils and organisations such as Suffolk ACRE.

Suffolk launched its strategy as part of the National Playday, the annual celebration of children's right to play.

The strategy's launch coincided with celebrations by young helpers from across Suffolk to mark 20 years of Suffolk Family Carers.

Fifty young carers, aged nine-16 years of age, from across Suffolk were invited to get together and join in with fun activities on the theme of Our Streets Too.

Coun Patricia O'Brien, Suffolk County Council's portfolio holder for children, schools and young people's services, said: "Children's right to play is often taken for granted.

"Too many children are kept from the happy and carefree experiences of childhood – playing in the park, cycling up and down the street, building imaginary castles in the countryside. We owe it to every child in Suffolk to ensure they have the freedom to play.

"For this reason we have decided to launch the Suffolk Play Strategy at an event for Suffolk Young Carers, a group who has the same right to play as other children and young people but who often do not enjoy the same opportunities.

"I am sure that by working together in a co-ordinated way, we can provide all Suffolk children with these vital play opportunities."

College chalks up a sixth win

WEST Suffolk College has triumphed once again in the Bury In Bloom competition to the delight of green-fingered groundsman Russell Gladwish.

The college was named the best Business/Industrial Premises Out of Town in the contest, and commended by the judges as: "A superb place to study in."

This year is the 21st anniversary of the competition, which was first started by the Bury Society.

West Suffolk College has now won the best Business/Industrial Premises prize six times since 1997, as well as being a runner-up in 1999.

It was also one of three organisations to win a gold award in the Business/Industrial Premises Out of Town category. The other two golds were awarded to Bury fire station and Services to Business. West Suffolk Hospital won a bronze award. Earlier in the year, video production students at the college made a film, to be used as evidence by Bury in Bloom organisers, to show the national judges how the community is involved in the competition.

Bury in Bloom campaign manager Julia Rackowe praised the way the students captured the community's involvement in the campaign and its focus on biodiversity.

Bury St Edmunds is now in the running for the Anglia In Bloom competition.

Regional judges visited the town shortly after the Bury in Bloom awards presentations.

PSYCHOTHERAPY is fast becoming recognised as an effective way of treating emotional issues and is often used as a patient's last attempt to treating a re-occurring or persistent illness.

Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT) is the UK's fastest growing alternative therapy with thousands of cures attributed to it. Sometimes referred to as "yoga for the mind" EFT works in a completely holistic way by treating the emotional causes of the presenting symptoms, as five different clients with a headache can have five different reasons for their pain.

Psychotherapist, John Digby is an EFT expert therapist and registered trainer who offers EFT from his office base on Hollands Road, Haverhill.

EFT can cure a spectrum of illnesses such as pain management, addictions, weight loss, allergies, fears and phobias, asthma, diabetes and many more.

ADVERTISING FEATURE

John explains: "EFT works on the same meridians of energy which are accessed in acupuncture. These are the message highways that the brain uses to communicate with every function of the body and psyche. When there is a blockage, break or kink in these pathways the result is an adverse reaction, or symptom.

"These interruptions in service are caused when an emotional event leaves a 'charge' or 'trigger' in the flow of energy. This negative barrier will remain causing problems until it is dismantled in some way.

"EFT works by getting the patient to fully associate with the issue at hand whilst tapping on some 15 points on the face, upper torso and hand, so these interruptions are cleared and the ailment dissolve forever."

John adds: "A surprising yet little-known fact is that over 80 per cent of patients in your local GPs waiting room are there because of psychosomatic illness. These are illnesses caused by the mind. Modern medicine treats the symptom, but psychotherapists treat the cause of it, thereby eliminating the symptom for good."

Created by Gary Craig in 1990, EFT is unique in that everyone can learn how to use it - for free - as once you have learned how to perform EFT you can self-administer the treatment and would only need to visit a registered therapist with problems you can't address yourself.

Football fan trains for £5k charity bid

BY Laura Johnston

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

FOOTBALL fanatic Malcolm Thompson is putting on his running shoes and warming up his vocal chords to raise money for the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

The 45-year-old Ipswich Town supporter will run more than 40 miles to the club's Portman Road ground from his home in Haverhill to see their last home game next season.

And the north stand season ticket holder is making a record of an old Ipswich Town song with the group The Ballistics.

Mr Thompson is a friend of Blues and England legend Kevin Beattie, whose wife Maggie has Multiple Sclerosis (MS), and he hopes his fundraising challenges will raise £5,000 for the charity.

He is now training seriously but admitted: "I have never done any running before, apart from running to the bar at last orders. This is going to be a massive challenge for me but one that I intend to achieve.

■ CHARITY CHALLENGE . . . Malcolm Thompson wants to raise £5,000 for the Multiple Sclerosis Society CP.

"When you consider the London Marathon is a lot less distance, this is going to be some achievement for a novice with a dodgy knee who is getting on a bit."

The plan is for Mr Thompson to run from Haverhill to Hintlesham the day before Ipswich's last home game of the 2007/08 season, and then run the final eight miles on match day.

Mr Thompson runs an Ipswich Town supporters' club in Haverhill where Mr Beattie is president.

"Kevin is a lifelong hero of mine and I am proud to be able to help him," he said. "I hope that all Ipswich Town fans and all other football fans, along with my friends and colleagues, will support me and I hope other people in the town will sponsor me if they can.

"Even a few pounds will make a huge difference and mean the MS Society can continue their invaluable work supporting families like Kevin's."

The fundraising record will be recorded with the help of fellow Ipswich Town fans and should be on sale near the end of the year.

Summer fun with the Krazy Kats

FUN and games with a beanstalk like they had never seen before amused youngsters attending the latest show at Haverhill Arts Centre. Krazy Kat Theatre brought along their own version of Jack and the Beanstalk, with magic tricks, music, silly puppets and a rather cross giant. It was appreciated by an audience of three to seven-year-olds and their parents. The event is part of Haverhill Town Council's "Summer in Haverhill" programme, which continues with dance workshops this week, drama workshops next week, summer band nights on the Market Square on Saturday and August 25, as well as The Magnificent Flying Machine Show for children aged four and over on Thursday, August 30, at 11am at the arts centre. For bookings or information, call (01440) 714140.

Welcome for new tenants

WELCOME packs full of useful information are being given to new tenants in Haverhill.

The packs contain energy-saving light bulbs, dishcloths, keyrings, batteries for smoke alarms and antiseptic wipes, as well as official paperwork.

Sue Philp, operations director of Suffolk Housing Society, said: "Moving into a new home is very stressful. Quite often you forget about important details, like light bulbs.

"Our tenants have told us they appreciate this little extra from us. The welcome pack is a simple, but effective, way to help our tenants."

Cameras will help front-line officers

"HEADCAMS" mounted on police helmets are to be introduced in Cambridgeshire.

Eight of the £1,500 cameras are being bought for each of the county's three policing divisions, with a £36,000 government grant.

Front-line officers will most likely wear the recording cameras on high visibility duties, such as crowd control or night-time patrols.

The government cash is part of £3 million set aside by the Home Office to fund the new technology following a trial of the cameras in Plymouth, where police saw conviction rates rise by 7 per cent.

The cameras, which have a lens the size of a 2p piece, can be worn on helmets or uniforms to film an eye-level view of incidents. Footage can be used in court as evidence against any suspected offenders caught on camera.

It is hoped they will help to rule out misleading evidence from offenders, recording events as they unfold and capturing additional details such as the manner and tone of voice of those involved in incidents.

A Cambridgeshire police spokeswoman said: "Having head cameras at our disposal would undoubtedly be welcomed by officers in Cambridge and the surrounding area."

"It would give us considerable advantages in the detection and prevention of crime, as well as evidential benefits. By seeing an incident filmed from the viewpoint of an officer on the ground, it may be possible to detect the attitude of those involved and how co-operative they are."

"This can only be an advantage to officers – and potentially the courts – when examining the circumstances of an incident."

According to the Home Office, the recorded evidence will make it harder for offenders to mislead juries.

Home Office Minister Tony McNulty said the cameras significantly improved the quality of evidence provided by police officers, which in turn helped to reduce crime, and bring more offenders to justice.

■ GOTCHA! . . . front-line officers are expected to wear the headcams on crowd control duties and night-time patrols.

The headcams can record up to 400 hours of digital footage, but are unlikely to be fitted to every officer's uniform any time soon – it would cost more than £200 million to provide a camera for all of the 136,000 officers in the country.

Charities get £14k boost

A BRAND new JVC television was won by a lucky supporter of this year's Charity Golf Classic held at Haverhill Golf Course in June.

The annual event, organised in association with the Haverhill Weekly News, is expected to raise a bumper £14,000 with most of the cash going to the East Anglian Children's Hospices and the remainder to Rotary charities. Chapmans of Haverhill donated a television set for the raffle, which raised more than £2,000 of the total. Lucky winner Mr R Gordon was presented with his set by John Senior, president of Haverhill and District Rotary Club, and Peter Bowers, captain of Haverhill Golf Club.

Date for blood donors in town

SAVE a life and give blood. An East Anglia Blood Donor Session is being held from 10am-12.30pm and again from 2pm-3.30pm on Sunday, August 26, in Haverhill Arts Centre in Main Hall, High Street, Haverhill. To book an appointment call 0845 7711711.

On course for culinary skill

ASPIRING Jamie Olivers are invited to hone their culinary skills at workshops starting in September.

The classes are part of the new programme of adult education classes being launched at West Suffolk College.

An Asian cookery class will offer the opportunity to learn about a variety of foods and spices, and people who rely on ready meals can learn quick and easy recipes for fast, wholesome food at Of Course You Can Cook!

Spend an Evening with a Talented Chef will include cookery demonstrations followed by a three-course meal.

Sugarcraft for Beginners will also be on offer, and a one-day workshop, Modelling for Xmas, will cover seasonal designs you can use to decorate a Christmas cake.

Two courses will be held for those who want to make a career in catering, leading to the Basic Food Hygiene – Level 2 Award in Food Safety, and the CIEH Level 2 Award in Food Safety in Catering.

Rovers aim for a season of thrills

Promotion means a new start for squad

■ HAVERRILL ROVERS IN ACTION . . . Rovers' Colin Vowden, in red, shows his bravery by playing on despite injury. This season fixtures get under way on Saturday with a home game against Wisbech.

HAVERHILL Rovers enter the new season on a high following their promotion to the Ridgeons League, Premier Division at the end of last season.

As the hardest team to beat last season, the same squad has been re-signed and will return to the pitch strengthened by the welcome additions of summer signings, Wayne Goddard, Louie Farrington and most recently Gareth Thomas.

Both full backs, Goddard joins the side from Mildenhall Town and Farrington from Ipswich Wanderers, and they will link up at Hamlet Croft with former Histon team mate Colin Vowden, who was an influential figure in Haverhill's promotion. Thomas makes the third of the summer signings and has come from AFC Hornchurch. The trio will offer Haverhill boss Steve Taylor more competition for places at the back.

The team is hoping that their winning streak will continue following their record breaking FA Cup run last season which saw them reach the fourth qualifying round. The team scored a massive 77 points, held the best goal difference in the division and finished second in their league which was then the Ridgeon's League, First Division.

Founded in 1886, Haverhill Rovers first started playing at Seven Acres, an area bordered on two sides by the old railway line and Wrattling Road. The team moved to Hamlet Croft in 1913, and remains their home ground today.

Rovers ended last season in style by winning the Best Cup Run title at the Non-League Paper's awards ceremony at the Emirates Stadium.

The first match of the season will be on home turf as the capable side take on Wisbech in their first match in the Ridgeons League, Premier Division at the Hamlet Croft ground this Saturday.

■ HAVERRILL ROVERS' MANAGER RICHARD CARTER . . . last season's performances were capped with a promotion to the Ridgeons League Premier division for the club which was founded more than 120 years ago.

Now motorists face plans to hit parking

BY Rachel Exance

Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

PRESSURE on motorists to abandon their cars in favour of the bus is increasing.

People are being asked to comment on a new scheme for on-street parking across Cambridgeshire. The aim is to encourage drivers to keep their cars out of towns and cities, urge them to join car club schemes and face higher charges to park gas guzzlers.

The scheme could be used to raise money for public transport, and road, parking and environmental projects.

New businesses will have to prove they need vehicle access if they are to get a parking permit.

Disabled people may find that only those with severe mobility problems will be allowed to park in designated bays in high demand areas such as Cambridge city centre.

The latest bid to cut congestion follows proposals by Cambridgeshire County Council to charge people for driving into Cambridge

■ QUICKER BY BUS . . . planners hope motorists will use public transport and help to avoid hold-ups like this.

during the morning rush hour.

Pressure on parking on Cambridgeshire's urban streets is expected to grow as thousands of homes are built across the county.

Coun Mac McGuire, the county council's lead member for highways and transport, said: "If we can encourage people to use public transport we should do so, provided there is a good public transport system which is affordable. Parking can play a part in that."

"What we cannot continue to do is make it easy to drive into Cambridge or the market towns. That's not going to reduce pressure on parking spaces.

"We must have public transport in place which will help to encourage people not to use their cars and just park somewhere in the city."

That could include some disabled blue badge holders. Transport bosses are looking at whether some could use public transport and certain areas where disabled parking exists could be restricted to those who have no choice but to use a car.

Richard Preston, head of network management, said: "We have a long-term problem with an ageing population where there are more blue badge holders.

We want to be able to satisfy all the demand for spaces, but we are starting to think about encouraging blue badge holders to use public transport more often. That has to be better and more tolerant of their needs."

"Where there is high demand, say in the centre of Cambridge, we could restrict long-stay blue badge holders and prioritise where appropriate."

However, it is not just people coming into the city to work or shop who will be encouraged to get out of their cars. Residents will be encouraged to join car sharing clubs, offering neighbours lifts in return for lower parking charges. Those who drive low emission vehicles could be charged less for a permit too. People moving into new developments will not be allowed to join residents' parking schemes.

Transport bosses want developers to design parking into their schemes so that new residents do not add to the growing pressure on street parking.

But it could be good news for existing residents.

The measures aim to reduce parking in residential streets and parking zones will be created so that blocks of streets form a residents' parking area, the hope being that problems will not be shifted into adjacent streets. Lorries will be unable to park in residential streets.

A copy of the draft parking policy is available at www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/transport/nm and the closing date for comments is Friday, September 7. A copy can be obtained from Helen Green on (01223) 718587 or email helen.green@cambridgeshire.gov.uk

Over £2m to be spent on gypsy pitches

MORE than £2 million will be invested in new gypsy and traveller pitches in Cambridgeshire.

Two new sites with 29 pitches will be created in Fenland while South Cambridgeshire District Council has been given cash to upgrade facilities at a site in Milton. East Cambridgeshire District Council will add a plot to Wentworth.

The Government cash will be used to create more official sites in a bid to reduce illegal encampments.

Grants totalling £1,272,000 and £890,000 have been awarded by the Government for the new sites called The Orchards 1 and 2. Their location has not yet been determined.

At least 265 new pitches are needed across Cambridgeshire and Peterborough according to the East of England Regional Assembly which is currently working out how they should be distributed. The county could be asked to make room for up to 383 pitches.

A spokesman for Fenland District Council said: "We don't know where they will be yet. We are in discussions with landowners."

South Cambs receives £21,000 to repair a utility block at its Blackwell site to bring a plot back into use and make general improvements.

The council has been urging neighbouring local authorities to make more provision for gypsies and travellers rather than relying on South Cambs.

The grants are part of a £5.7 million package for the East of England which has been welcomed by Coun John Reynolds, chairman of the East of England Regional Assembly.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

WHO TO NOTIFY:

- ☐ Banks.
- ☐ Building Societies.
- ☐ Credit companies.
- ☐ Insurance companies.
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and Water Boards.
- ☐ Telephone company.
- ☐ Local Authority (Rating Department).
- ☐ Driving Licence authorities.
- ☐ Inland Revenue.
- ☐ Store cards and accounts.
- ☐ Other lease, hire or rental companies.
- ☐ Employer.
- ☐ Doctor.
- ☐ Dentist.

criss-crossing America
as well as touring Italy, Holland, Germany, and the Czech Republic.
Also on the bill will be acoustic county singer Marina Florance and local singer Bernard Hoskin. Admission is £4.

ADC theatre to stage comedy premiere

THE ADC's final production of the season will be the premiere of a new comedy from
Cambridge writer JM Golder.
Sexual Ironing features seven sketches about human relations: two girls find out dressing up as a Playboy bunny isn't all they thought it would be while elsewhere a couple argue about dirty language and a girl makes the mistake of asking her boyfriend about his sexual fantasy.

The play appears for one night only at the ADC in Cambridge tomorrow night before going on to a five-night run at the Etcetera Theatre in Camden, as part of the Camden Fringe Festival.
Golder's previous fringe

outing, Absurdities/Bed scored a 4-star review for its Brighton Fringe

Over 30 bands line up for music festival

By Nik Shelton

THE Fordham Music Festival returns this weekend with a packed line-up including ska kings Bad Manners and Neville
Staples, as well as plucky chart pioneers Koopa.

The festival takes place over three days – tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday – with more than 30 bands playing. The event has gone from strength-to-strength over the past four years, and all its profits go to Cambridge mental health charity Cam Mind.

On Saturday, the festival will see the last appearance by Essex punks Koopa before they take a break from a hard touring schedule to hole themselves up in a studio and record some new tracks.

The three piece hit the headlines in January when they became the first unsigned band ever to get in the top 40, when their download-only single Blag, Steal and Borrow sneaked in at number 31. The follow up single did even better, hitting number 21.

Since then their phone has been off the hook with offers, interviews and record deals.

"Gigging was the first thing – everyone wanted to book us," says vocalist and bassist Joe

■ RECORDING NEW TRACKS... Essex punks Koopa.

CP

Murphy. "We've also been talking to lots of labels and production companies who are looking to help us.

"If the right label comes along with the right offer then we will sign, but the fact that we've got this far without them means a record deal is not a necessity. In the past bands used to jump at any record deal that was offered to them but with us we can actually say, 'What can you offer us that we can't do ourselves?'"

The lads managed their chart achievement thanks to changes in the chart eligibility rules meaning that downloads were counted as well as physical single sales.

The new rules have been a massive boost to unsigned bands and small labels who don't have the money or clout to produce massive numbers of CDs and distribute them to record shops.
The band say it has helped give power back to the artists – but they are not willing to predict the death of the traditional record industry just yet.
The Fordham Music Festival is tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.
Tickets are £20-£25 for a day, or £50 for the weekend. For more

An idea for a writing project is too compelling to ignore. Jot down your thoughts on paper, and then develop them for a half hour each day for the next two weeks. You'll make admirable progress. A respected expert could give you valuable advice.

Your heart and head are working in perfect harmony. If you're dissatisfied with your home life, now is the time to change the situation. Finding a new place, moving to a different residence, or striking out on your own are among the possibilities.

You're bound to be very busy over the next few weeks. Phone calls, emails, and text messages need to be answered promptly, or an important message will fall through the cracks. If you don't know the answer to a question, be honest.

Your taste for luxury prompts
you to make some expensive purchases. Others may worry over your extravagance, but you are long overdue a treat. Too often, you go without. Now is your chance to adjust the balance.

You're filled with energy and enthusiasm, and have the power to make exciting changes. Taking a class or a short trip could give you a new lease on life. It's possible that you'll begin a writing project. This isn't a good time to embark on a romance.

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

Latest lion has a lot of pride

MPV, SUV, automatic four wheel drive but with three manual positions, five seater, seven seater – the details of the new Peugeot 4007 could, as they say, easily confuse a stupid person.

And unravelling it all is not made any easier in the knowledge that Citroen has built one on the same platform and so has Mitsubishi. With Citroen, it is known as the C-Crosser (yes, seriously!) and with Mitsubishi it is the Outlander.

Peugeot says this is its first SUV or sports utility vehicle. But if you regard it more as an MPV then there is already the Peugeot 806. Certainly from its generous interior, the 4007 leans on MPV territory. But humping it along the muddy backwood tracks of Longleat in lion country, I could certainly appreciate its four wheel drive and sports utility vehicle credentials.

So just where do we stand? Price is always a good starting point. The new 4007 is launched with just two trim levels, the SE at £22,790 and the GT at £25,490. There is one engine – a 2.2-litre HDi diesel which comes with a six-speed manual gearbox incorporating on demand four wheel drive.

Don't hang too much on the fact that it is a seven-seater. What we are looking at is a comfortable five seat car with two difficult-to-access and rudimentary pop up seats for smaller children at the rear.

The 4007 is a pleasing car to drive. It handles nicely, the view in all directions is good and there is none of that lurchiness that goes with some high sided designs. At the rear, the cargo space is generous and even practical with the small seats raised in position. You could undertake very long trips with it and still feel fresh.

A rotary dial controls the transmission. Mostly you will use the normal two wheel drive system. Automatic 4WD means that power is delivered automatically to the wheel that requires most traction at any one time – ideal for icy road or muddy tracks. Permanent 4WD locks all wheels for maximum drive on a 50:50 split torque arrangement between front and rear wheels.

The diesel engine is extremely flexible and emits an excellent 191g/km. It almost touches 40mpg with the 16-inch wheel versions but this falls away slightly to 38.6mpg when optional 18 inch wheels are fitted. It runs on up to 30 per cent biodiesel with no modifications.

■ THE PEUGEOT 4007 . . . style, space, practicality and comfort.

I think the SE version is likely to be the most popular and certainly represents better value for money. It has the 16-inch wheel as standard and therefore slightly better economy. The jump from £22,790 to a slightly eye watering £25,490 merely provides full leather upholstery which looks like plastic, 18 inch wheels and a six disc CD autochanger, rear parking assistance, xenon headlights and "increased chrome detailing."

The 4007 is in a very competitive part of the market and there are cheaper challengers round every corner. But it should establish a following for those who go for style, space, practicality and comfort at a mid-range price and who want an economical alternative to an estate car.

BASICALLY . . .

A sports utility vehicle in which the overall impression is definitely not one of utility. Excellent blend of accommodation, cargo space and off-road capability.

Pity about the yawning whale styling of the tacked on front end.

VERDICT

Clubman reworked for autumn launch

BRITAIN'S Mini dealers have spent around £40 million expanding, or improving, their showroom environments over the last two years, so it's understandable that they are probably more excited than the motoring public about the forthcoming estate version – the Clubman.

Taller, and obviously longer, than a standard Mini, the Clubman is destined to become a cult classic, and brings to the estate market the coolest, sexiest look ever.

It arrives in the UK on November 10, and those same dealers are bracing themselves for the sales rush – the sassiest Christmas stocking filler this year will undoubtedly be the new Clubman.

The load carrier is a key model in the Mini range's evolution, with sales of the iconic supermini showing no signs yet of abating in Britain – they're already up 14 per cent this year.

Minis hold their money, too – resale values are incredible, especially for models aged from one to three years old – so the effect of the dreaded depreciation isn't so harsh.

What's important to the little estate's heritage is that it takes styling cues from the Morris Mini Traveller, Austin Mini Countryman, and the Mini Clubman Estate, which enjoyed widespread success in the 1960s, and it stays true to modern Mini design with short body overhangs, wide track, a long wheelbase and the high shoulder line rising towards the rear.

It's be a little pricey when compared with rival hold-alls, but no-one will be put off by the prospect of shelling out an extra thousand or so to own a Clubman.

The lead-in 1.6-litre Cooper will cost £14,235, the diesel version is priced at £15,400, while the Cooper S Clubman tops the range at £17,210.

For that outlay, you get an estate that is 24cm longer, and 2cm higher than the hatch, which means 8cm more legroom for rear passengers and five seats.

Boot capacity has increased to 260 litres with the seats in place, and up to 930 litres with the rear seats down. Still not as good as a Skoda Fabia hatchback – you get 1,163 litres in the new Fabia – but again, it's a Mini so who's counting?

■ THE MINI CLUBMAN . . . launch date is November 10.

Clubman design highlights include the two piece split-door at the back, a modern take on that on the classic forerunners, and a hinged "Clubdoor" at the back on the right-hand side of the car that pens against the direction of travel for back-seat access.

For safety reasons, this door can only be opened when the front door is open.

The Clubman's rear light clusters are a new design, and there will be 12 body colours to choose from – including Hot Chocolate, an exclusive Clubman finish.

Finally, if safety figures highly in your list of must-haves, then the new Mini Clubman has got six airbags as standard, including side and curtain head airbags, anti-lock brakes, electronic brake force distribution, and cornering brake control as standard.

There's also dynamic stability, automatic stability, and traction control systems, which includes hill-start assistance, which holds a manual Clubman on the brake for a few seconds when setting off on a gradient.

Youngsters learn vital safety lessons as campaign begins

PRE-SCHOOLERS this week helped launch a national campaign to cut the horrifying road death toll among young children. Aimed at children aged under five, the Beep Beep! Day campaign teaches youngsters the vital basics for staying safe on the roads.

Run by road safety charity Brake along with breakdown service Green Flag, the campaign was launched at Happy Times Nursery in Hammersmith, west London. The two organisations said that last year's statistics showed that 1,789 children aged five and under were killed or hurt while walking or cycling on UK streets – five every day. Jools Townsend, head of education at Brake, said: “Every child has the right to walk and cycle safely. Through our campaign we can reach thousands of youngsters and help develop the foundations of life-saving road safety education.

“We are also urging the Government to take action to stop needless deaths among innocent children. We are calling for 20mph zones around nurseries, schools and homes and provision of free pre-school road safety resources right across the country.” Green Flag road safety spokesperson Abi Clark said: “It is horrifying so many young children are killed and seriously injured by cars every day. “Hopefully this initiative will not only help children stay safe but also raise awareness among drivers about the need to slow down and drive carefully around homes, schools and nurseries.” Brake is calling for the Government to fund free road safety education resources for all pre-schoolers. This is provided in Scotland, direct to parents through health authorities, but not in England.

Beep Beep! Basics will save lives on roads

At the age of three, most children are more than able to learn basic road safety lessons, such as hold hands, stay away from cars, and stop when told to (although they should never be allowed out on their own on roads). This provides an invaluable foundation for learning the green cross code at the age of five and older. Nigel Charlesworth, spokesperson for Green Flag said: “We are backing Beep Beep! Day because we believe that educating children on the dangers needs to start with the very young and vulnerable, especially at those ages when they become more adventurous and take chances with their lives near roads.”

■ PLAYING IT SAFE . . . a national campaign aims to teach children under five vital basics for staying safe on the road.

Small car, big value

EUROTAXGLASS'S, publisher of Glass's Guide to Used Car Values, has revealed the types of used car that are least susceptible to depreciation. Assessing more than 6,000 different three-year-old models, the research indicates that used cars are more likely to retain a greater proportion of their value if they are a coupe or convertible, small or lower-medium sized, are produced by a prestige-brand manufacturer, and powered by a diesel or low-capacity petrol engine. The least depreciating car around is the Mini in virtually any guise, whether convertible or hatchback with either petrol or diesel engine. Audi and Volkswagen both feature twice in the top 10 along with Nissan and SEAT. The worst depreciating car is the Citroen C5 3.0 V6 worth only 17.5 per cent of its original price after three years.

■ THE TOYOTA RAV4 . . . well worth a look.

■ THE HONDA CR-V . . . while some are moving on to the 2007 model, there's opportunities for those that want to look around.

Older 4x4s fall from grace – as do prices

Lots of forecourt bargains!

EUROTAXGLASS'S, publisher of trade prices "bible" Glass's Guide, says the demand in recent years for medium-sized new off-roaders has impacted on resale values.

Adrian Rushmore, managing editor at EurotaxGlass's, says: "Models such as the Land Rover Freelander, Nissan X-Trail, Honda CR-V, and Toyota RAV4 have all sold well as new vehicles this decade, leading to an increasing number of owners looking to move on from their three to five-year-old examples.

"The Freelander and CR-V are partly out of favour due to the introduction of second-generation models, which reached showrooms earlier this year," he adds.

"It is interesting to note that the market for large 4x4s, such as the BMW X5 and Land Rover Discovery, shares the same problem of increasing used supply, but the accumulation of stock is more evident among later registration plate examples.

"This could be a sign of owners moving away from such cars, realising that they are now less socially acceptable due their perceived lack of green credentials," adds Rushmore.

"It has been suggested by some commentators that the rise in Vehicle Excise Duty in April will have a direct effect on demand for 4x4s. In fact, there is little evidence to support this view, with new and used sales still strong.

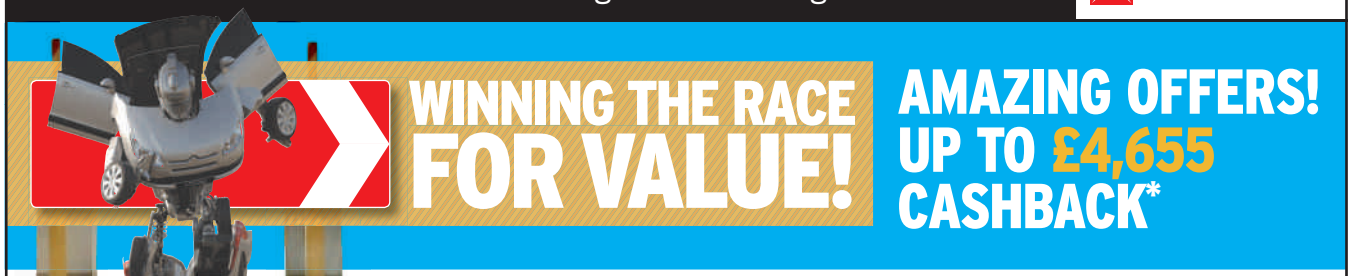

"We can, however, conclude that the high volume of 4x4s now available has suppressed residual values to an extent, making these popular vehicles more affordable to used buyers," Rushmore concludes.

■ THE FREELANDER . . . still does the business whatever the price.

HELPING MOTORISTS LOCATE GOOD GARAGES

Retail Motor Industry Federation members adhere to a strict Code of Practice and pride themselves on providing high quality, value-for-money services to the motoring public.

The RMIF is currently promoting its popular Consumer Motorline – 08457 58 53 50: on calling this number, consumers are put in touch with local RMIF garages. For the more IT-aware, a Find a Service postcode search facility is available on our website, www.rmif.co.uk.

The motoring public should have easy access to the very best quality customer care and service, and RMIF members – spanning over 8,000 businesses – are committed to providing this through their support of a robust Code of Practice.

The Federation represents not only independent garages, but also franchised and commercial vehicle dealers, motorcycle dealers and rider training centres, body repairers, motor auctions, MoT test stations, cherished number plate dealers and petrol retailers. Put simply, as the largest trade body for the retail motor sector, we are uniquely placed to advise consumers: the RMIF is a gateway to quality services.

Matthew Carrington RMIF Chief Executive: “In addition, using an RMIF member provides customers with the valuable reassurance of our mediation service – this facility will investigate any complaint made against a member, and will remain impartial throughout. In most cases it is successful in resolving disputes or disagreements fairly and amicably.”

To locate an RMIF member, consumers can use the “Find a Service” search facility on www.rmif.co.uk or call the Consumer Motorline on 08457 58 53 50.

Public Notices

EAST CAMBRIDGESHIRE DISTRICT COUNCIL (OFF-STREET PARKING PLACES) ORDER 2007

Take notice that at its meeting on 13th September 2007, East Cambridgeshire District Council will consider adopting the below order which will come into force on 10th December 2007 and will regulate off-street parking in the following car parks, namely Angel Drove Car Park (long stay charged)

Barton Road, Ely (long stay with morning restrictions) Brays Lane, Ely (short stay)

Forehill, Ely (short stay)

Newnham Street, Ely (short stay)

Newnham Street, Ely (long stay, with morning restrictions) St Mary's Street, Ely (short stay)

Ship Lane, Ely (long stay, with morning restrictions) Fisherman's Car Park (Riverside) Ely (long stay)

*Cresswell's Lane, Ely (10 hours between 7 pm and 5 am)

*Cresswell's Lane coach and large vehicle park (12 hours between 5 am and 6 pm)

The Grange (short stay)

Main Street, Littleport (long stay)

Clay Street, Soham (long stay)

Fountain Lane, Soham (12 ½ hours between 6.30 pm and 7 pm)

In each case, except Brays Lane, Ely where "short stay" means a maximum permitted stay of 2 hours with no return to that car park for two hours and Forehill Car Park where "short stay" means a maximum permitted stay of 4 hours with no return to that car park for two hours :-

"Short stay" means a maximum permitted stay of 3 hours with no return to that car park for two hours. "Long stay" means a maximum permitted stay of 23.5 hours in any period of twenty-four.

In each case, except Cresswell's Lane, Ely coach and lorry park and Forehill car park, the following classes of vehicles are allowed, namely:

Motor vehicles not exceeding 5.3 metres in length or 2.5 metres in height, including any roof rack or luggage box

Motor cycles

Invalid carriages

Disabled persons' vehicles.

The use of the Angel Drove car park shall be charged at £2.50 per day (24-hour period) or £11 per week.

The Council will be able to issue notices to pay a penalty charge for the following reasons:

1. Exceeding maximum permitted parking period.
2. Parking in a disabled person's parking bay without displaying a valid disabled badge.
3. Parking outside a parking bay (including parking at the end of a row, on a walkway or on the grass).
4. Parking on double yellow lines or on any other yellow marking.
5. Parking in a parking bay designated in Schedule 2 to the Order as being for other types of vehicle.
6. Parking in more than one bay.
7. Returning to a parking place within two hours of leaving it.
8. Parking without displaying a valid parking ticket, where required to do so.

Penalty charges will be £40 (£30 if paid within 14 days of issue). The Council will be able to take court action for non-payment and for any other contravention of the Order.

A copy of the East Cambridgeshire (Off-Street Parking Places) Order 2007, a Statement of Reasons for proposing to make the Order, and Maps are available for inspection at the Council Offices, Nutholt Lane, Ely between 8.45 am and 5.00 pm (Monday to Thursday) and 8.45 am and 4.30 pm (Friday). Copies are also available at www.eastcamb.gov.uk.

Any objections to the Order must be made in writing, specifying the grounds on which they are made, by 30th August 2007 and addressed to The Chief Executive at the Council Offices, or submitted via parking@eastcamb.gov.uk

COMFY-KIDS LIMITED

CRICKET ROUND-UP

Winter ton keeps title hope alive

NEIL Winter hammered an unbeaten century as Haverhill maintained their charge for the Division Three crown in the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship with a nine-wicket win at home to Lakenheath.

Winter, standing in as captain in the absence of Rob Sullivan, hit 118 not out with fine support from Adam Dellar (53) and Simon Youngs (33) as Haverhill cruised to a winning total of 211 for 1.

It came after Lakenheath were restricted to 207 for 6 in their innings, a strong fightback after being 8 for 2, with Martin Wilkins taking both early scalps. Sullivan said: "It was a very convincing win and Neil did a fantastic job."

"We've got some new young guys in and they aren't feeling the pressure."

■ WESTON COLVILLE'S total of 142 in Division Two of the Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League was not enough to prevent them from losing out to second-from-bottom Castor & Ailsworth by eight wickets after the strugglers reached 143 for 2.

■ HORSEHEATH lost by one wicket to Fulbourn in Division One of the CCA Senior League.

Horseheath batted first and Dan Goldsmith (58) and Alan Ketteridge (54) put on 100 for the first wicket as the hosts got off to a cracking start, but Jono Hartley (6 for 29) caused all sorts of damage with his slow-right-armers and they crumbled to 172 all out.

Captain Mark Hodgson fell one short of his half-century and Adam Austwick added 22 in the middle order to guide Fulbourn to 173 for 9 with three overs to spare.

■ TON UP ... Neil Winter, whose unbeaten century powered Haverhill to victory over Lakenheath.

Robbie Ketteridge (4 for 30) and Stuart Ketteridge (3 for 48) were the pick of the bowlers for the defeated outfit.

■ THURLOW upset the form books as the Junior League 2SB side beat Great Shelford by two runs to lift the CCA Junior Cup.

In a pulsating match, Thurlow, who play in the division below Great Shelford batted and posted a total of 181 for 7 – with captain Keith Donno making a man-of-the-match score of 75 not out.

In response, Shelford bowler Steve Smith recorded strong figures of 3 for 58, as Thurlow were reduced to setting a modest total of 182 to win.

A top-end collapse saw Great Shelford struggling on 30 for 3 before a middle-order partnership of 77 between Will Thomas (57) and Tom Barnard (34) put Shelford in a promising position.

But an inspirational bowling display from Dennis Willis, which saw him collect four wickets for just 22 runs, put Thurlow back in control.

A battling batting effort from Shelford's No 8, Paul Ellum, which saw him post 29 not out was only in vain as they finished on 179 for 8 – an agonising three runs short of the required 182 to win, meaning that victory, and the trophy, belonged to Thurlow.

Westley among wickets

TOM Westley picked up seven wickets as he made a winning debut for England Under-19s in their first test victory over Pakistan at Scarborough.

The 18-year-old all-rounder from Weston Colville, who made his first-class bow for Essex in May at Fenner's against Cambridge UCCE, claimed 4 for 49 and 3 for 82 as the hosts won by an innings and 58 runs. Westley, a mainstay in Saffron Walden Cricket Club's line-up, did not fare too well with the bat, making seven off 19 deliveries before being bowled by Imad Wasim. But he fared much better with the ball as he helped dismiss the visitors for 214 and 260 after England has posted a massive 532. And the teenager's performance in the first test came after he made his first Pro40 Division One appearance for Essex against Worcestershire on Thursday. But his 36 off 44 balls could not prevent his team losing by 62 runs at Chelmsford.

Collins on the Mark with five wickets

MARK Collins was named man of the match for his five-wicket haul, which left Great Yeldham reeling as Ashdon retained their Adams Harrison Midweek League Cup with a crushing 10-wicket victory in the final.

Batting first, Yeldham did not know what hit them as Collins (5 for 26) and Phillip Salt (3 for 0) dismantled the challengers to bowl them out for just 45.

Mark Furze then carried his bat for 31 as Ashdon made light work of the chase to reach 49 for no loss in just 4.3 overs.

Haverhill signed off their Division One campaign with two defeats, going down by 19 runs at home to Horseheath before losing by 80 runs at Abington.

Despite four wickets for Simon Youngs, Horseheath were still able to reach 122 for 9, while Adam Dellar (37) did his best with the bat for Haverhill, but they fell short on 103.

Against Abington, the home side put up a score of 197 for 2 thanks to runs from Bruce Wagstaff (59 not out), Simon Bishop (51), Matt Thomas (41) and Dave Pimblett (35no), which was too much for Haverhill, who were held to 117 for 7.

Weston Colville became the first and only side to beat Division One champions Lowry Engineering with back-to-back victories to bag the runners-up spot.

The first match finished with a five-wicket win for Weston with a ball to spare. Lowry were held to 123 for 7 before Adie Westley (66no) led Colville home to 124 for 5.

Colville then enjoyed a 13-run win over the top side after they posted a target of 109 for 7 thanks to Arvid Patel's 29, then held Lowry to 96 for 5.

Mark Johnson's 55 and 31 from Steve Jones helped Helions Bumpstead send Acton down from Division Two with an 88-run win after they made 148 for 8, and Acton could muster only 60 for 8 in reply.

Helions also beat Gestingthorpe by 17 runs, again with the help of Johnson, who was unbeaten on 76, and Mark Nunn (32no) in a total of 148 for 2 as the home side could only muster a reply of 131 for 2.

Clare wrapped up the Division 3A title in style with a 54-run success over Wrattling Lions, who scored just 48 for 8 in chase of 102 for 5.

But Lions beat Gestingthorpe II by 10 wickets after they skittled the visitors out for 39 before knocking off 45 for no loss in just 6.2 overs.

Highpoint also enjoyed a six-wicket success over basement boys Gestingthorpe II to help them get over a 30-run defeat to Great Yeldham.

Yeldham defended 112 for 7 by limiting Highpoint to 82 for 8, but an unbeaten 33 for Jason Claydon and 37 for Steve Oglesby took the Warders to 85 for 4 in chase of 82 for 8 against Gestingthorpe.

Fred Scruby took 3 for 19 for Weston Colville II, but they lost out by six runs to Lowry Engineering II in Division 3B. Lowry made 105 for 7 then bowled Colville out for 99.

BOWLS ROUND-UP

It's finals at the double for Haverhill

HAVERHILL bowlers were in action at the Manor Road rinks again this week with both the A and B teams successfully gaining places in their respective Bumpstead League Cup finals.

Haverhill A overcame Cavendish B, while the B team defeated Quendon in a reversal of last week's league result. Haverhill A's line-up of Jenny Morgan, Anne Hardwick and Peggy Mizon strolled to a comfortable 23 to 16 shot victory over Ken Hollingsworth's rink, as did Mavis Newman, Bernie Morgan and Ken Newman, who were 21 shots to nine victors over Bill Jenkins' rink. The Haverhill rink of Pam Seaman, Bill Tatters and Colin Jenkins, however, lost 18-21 to Brian Powell's rink. All Haverhill B rinks won in their match, the highlight being Tony Freeman, Shirley Purr and Pryce Hardwick's comeback from 17 shots to eight down to win 21-20 over Roy Ahern's block. Dianne Freeman, Paul Strudwick and Steph Smith beat Ron Walters rink by 15 shots to 12 and the rink of Ken Hawker, Ron Lofthouse and Bob Smith capped a fine overall victory with a win over Tony Green by 16 shots to 10. The finals will be played at Cavendish BC on Sunday, September 2. The first division contenders are Haverhill A and Saffron Walden A, while the second division final will be between Clare A and Haverhill B.

■ A combined rink of Haverhill BC and Clare BC Ladies returned with the Birdbrook Gala Trophy. Pam Seaman, Jenny Morgan (Haverhill) Jane Cleaver and Ivy Page (Clare) produced the goods to win the event. ■ The annual Ron Moody Memorial event was held over the weekend at Castle Camps BC. The shield was won by a team from the North Essex County Federation, containing considerable local representation. Alan and Grace Cutts, (Birdbrook), Bob and Steph Smith (Haverhill), Lorna Dockerill (Sudbury), Ray White, Les and Daphne Clark (Boxford) took the winners accolades by one point in the round-robin event.

FOOTBALL

Defeat spoils Rovers' good pre-season

HAVERHILL Rovers paid the price for some poor defending as they gifted Bishop's Stortford all three goals to suffer their only pre-season defeat with a 3-0 Uttlesford Charity Cup final defeat.

Rovers were on top form going into the Stortford game after bagging their fourth friendly win out of four with a 2-1 victory over new Essex Senior League side Mauritius Sports & Pennant on Saturday.

All three goals came in the last 15 minutes with Ryan Kent putting Haverhill in front, only for the visitors to equalise, but Martin Westcott popped up with the winner with two minutes to go.

However, in midweek, Blue Square South side Stortford took only five minutes to find the mark when Rovers failed to get a head to a cross which was knock in.

Andy Palazon was then punished for losing the ball five minutes before the break, leading to a second for the visitors.

Rovers, who were without the likes of Marcus Hunt, Colin Vowden, Dan Pilcher, Richard Heller and Ben Cowling, held their own for long periods in the second half, but another mistake on the ball by Sam

■ ON TARGET... Martin Westcott, who netted Haverhill Rovers' winning goal against Mauritius Sports & Pennant on Saturday.

Green gave Stortford the third five minutes from the end.

Haverhill boss Steve Taylor, who leads his newly promoted side into their first Ridgeons League, Premier Division fixture of the new campaign against Wisbech at Hamlet Croft on Saturday, has been more than happy with the team's pre-season as a whole, despite finishing on a losing note. He said: "They are a very good side, to be fair, and we were missing a few, but it was a good work-out.

"We've only lost the one game all pre-season so things have been quite good and hopefully we'll be ready for Wisbech on Saturday because we need to get off to a good start."

Shorter heads double, but Haverhill are held

HAVERHILL Rovers Ladies started their pre-season preparations with a 2-2 draw against Chelmsford City Ladies at Hamlet Croft. Despite being under severe pressure from their Eastern Region League opponents for most of the game, it was the home side who took the lead. With only six minutes on the clock, an in-swinging corner from Kelly Taylor was met by the powerful head of Katie Shorter.

The duo combined again just minutes later, when another Taylor corner was nodded in by Shorter to give the Rovers a 2-0 lead.

However, Chelmsford's dominance was rewarded in the second half, after Haverhill's resilience – with particularly impressive performances by defender Zoe Klimche and debutant goalkeeper Laura Gilbey – crumbled due to the excessive heat.

In the 58th minute Claire Pavitt pulled a goal back for the opposition, and in a nail-biting finale, a smart finish from Jazz Wheeler, following a mazy run, levelled the scores with just three minutes to go, as the game ended in a draw.

■ Haverhill continue their pre-season preparations on Sunday, when an Ipswich XI visit Hamlet Croft. Kick-off is at 2pm.

GOLF

Harkness lifts seniors' title

A BIG week for Haverhill Golf Club's senior players saw them compete for their own championship.

Two trophies were up for grabs and it was Dennis Harkness who captured the title of club champion following his round of 78, which was the lowest gross. Leading player in the attached handicap event was Dave Parsons, who finished one shot ahead of Geoff Dorkins.

Parsons' score was a one-under-par 69. The leading handicap scores were: D Parsons 69, G Dorkins, M McGarr 70, G Price, D Harkness 71, R Sisman, S Tatum 73, B Bentham, M Robinson, D Ross 74, J Condon, D Cohen 75, D Bates, J Walker, J Rennie 76, P Bowers, B Johnson 77, S Gould, P Wallace, M Klinge 78, C Briggs, G Lawrence 79, R Wheatley 80, D Hill, D Olive 81, P Mercer, M Turner 82, P Deane 84, A Playle 88, J Fox 89, K Bishop 91.

■ The following day saw a further round of the IFF Challenge being played.

The top three in the three divisions were: Division One: J Brown 67, K Eldred, P Houchen 70.

Division Two: R Claydon 66, R Rand, R Curl 70

Division Three: B Shuter 68, A Lord, S Haworth 70.

■ Haverhill Seniors entertained their

Royston counterparts in a fourball, betterball match in which the home side ran out 5-3 winners.

■ The following day it was Epping who visited Coups Road in the last of this season's Curry Cup league games. Haverhill took a positive lead at lunch, following the foursomes and then went on to convert the 4½-1½ points into a comprehensive 13-5 victory, but advancement to the semi-final stages of the event now lies in the results of other games.
